

The New Naturalist Collectors Club

The New Naturalist Collectors Club is delighted to be able to offer a selection of original artwork from New Naturalist Number 79, Caves and Cave Life by Philip Chapman. These beautifully detailed and delicate pencil drawings are by Brin Edwards who is a wildlife artist and illustrator with over 20 years experience working for a variety of UK and European publishers. Brin's clients include The Wildfowl and Wetlands Trust, The National Trust and BBC Wildlife Magazine. He divides his time between natural history illustration and wildlife painting. His work can be seen at The Pink Foot Gallery at Cley, Norfolk and The Society of Wildlife Artists annual exhibition at the Mall Galleries in London. He is a serving member of the SWLA and won British Birds illustrator of the year in 1999.

1 A Cave snail attempts to eat a hibernating Herald Moth.
p 170
(280mm x 210mm)

2 A newly emerged adult fungus gnat dries its wings.
p 161
(255mm x 185mm)

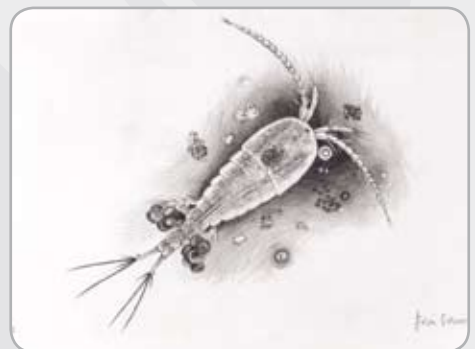

3 The blind cave spider.
p 153
(215mm x 143mm)

4 A millipede emerging from a water-filled crack after a flood.
p 59
(280mm x 210mm)

5 Brittle Bladder Fern.
p 118
(220mm x 130mm)

6 The copepod.
p 157
(220mm x 135mm)

7 The ground beetle.
p 57
(295mm x 210mm)

8 Olms.
p 52
(200mm x 255mm)

SOLD

SOLD

9 The rock house at Kinver.
p 192
(165mm x 255mm)

10 The amphipod is a classic troglobite.
p 112
(190mm x 195mm)

11 Thickets of Sallow.
p 116
(185mm x 150mm)

12 A group of female golden caddis flies.
p 125
(200mm x 255mm)

13 Toothwort.
p 118
(205mm x 160mm)

SOLD

14 The tissue moth.
p 124
(200mm x 175mm)

SOLD

15 Trichoniscoides saeroecensis
p 188
(150mm x 235mm)

16 An exquisitely painted horse from Lascaux Cave in France.
p 182
(190mm x 230mm)

Each illustration is priced at £100 including special delivery postage and packing.
For further details please contact the club:

Tim Bernhard | The New Naturalist Collectors Club
30 Botley Road | Romsey, Hampshire | SO51 5AP
Telephone: (01794) 320464 e-mail: tbernhard@btinternet.com